7. [] - GLC) Talked to Gordon Neese, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, about his request some weeks ago (Neese has been in the hospital) for an Agency briefing of the Military Construction Subcommittee on the Soviet presence in the Indian Ocean. I told Neese I had taken this up with the Director who agreed to appear in executive session and would probably bring [] with him. Neese does not have a specific date for the briefing at this time but expects it to be shortly after the current recess. He will give me a proposed date and a list of questions he would like answered in the briefing at an early date.

8. [] - GLC) In response to a call from Eric Hultman, in the office of Senator Roman Hruska, I dropped by to see him. He told me of a letter Hruska has received from an official of York College in Nebraska expressing concern about allegations that the Roman Catholic Church is using undue influence in DIA to protect its interests in training personnel for agency work. I told Hultman that the Director's responsibility with respect to DIA did not include any line responsibility but I would take the letter up with DIA officials and have someone get in touch with them.

9. [] - GLC) Delivered copies of the package on the CIA investigation released by Senator Baker's staff today to: Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations Committee staff; Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee; Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff; Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee; and Chairman Lucien Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee, House Armed Services Committee.

10. [] - GLC) Talked to Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, about the possibilities of having the Proxmire/Stennis amendment to the Military Procurement reintroduced and passed by the Senate with our domestic activities provision in it. Braswell is very skeptical this can be accomplished without Committee hearings. He said the only possibility would be to attach it to some other bill amending the National Security Act in order to avoid the non-germane rule in the House.
